

List of helpful Apps and websites for ESL learners and Teachers:

1. IXL: <https://www.ixl.com/>

This is a friendly app and website that is organized by grade level and skill level. It is an interactive way of learning independently. It includes vocabulary words learning activities and grammar rules games. If students make mistakes on solving a problem, the website provide explanation to each problem and how students can correct their mistakes.

2. Duolingo: <https://www.duolingo.com>

This app contains 27 different languages. There is a website page as well. It includes a dashboard for teachers to keep track of their students' development. It can be used by parents and family members to work with their children.

3. Quizlet

Quizlet provides engaging learning experiences in and out of classroom. It helps learners to study vocabulary words and see their progress.

4. Memrise: <https://www.memrise.com/>

This app is convenient for beginning ESL students. There are many problem-solving games which ask learners to identify and match. Audio is also provided, so ESL students can listen to the target language. The activities use repetition technique with words or phrases that language learners are struggling with, so they can master them in many different ways.

5. HelloTalk: <http://www.hellotalk.com/#en>

This app is an engaging tool for intermediate and advanced ESL students to develop their linguistic skills with people around the world. There is translation, time zone displays, and language and age level features, so language learners can have a matched person to work with. Language learners will have the opportunity to interact with native speakers and receive authentic input and useful feedback.

6. Easselly

This app is free and it includes a wide range of languages such as English, Arabic, Catalan, Czech, Danish, Dutch, Finnish, French, German, Greek, Hebrew, Hungarian, Indonesian, Italian, Japanese, Korean, Malay, Norwegian Bokmål, Polish, Portuguese, Romanian, Russian, Simplified Chinese, Slovak, Spanish, Swedish, Thai, Traditional Chinese, Turkish, Ukrainian, Vietnamese. This website helps improve language learners' skills.

7. Speaking Pal:

This app provides English, Greek, Japanese, Spanish, Chinese, Turkish, Thai, and Russian languages. It includes short lessons that focus on speech recognition and correction. It also provides instant feedback.

8. The English Learning Lounge

This app has different language skills such as grammar and vocabulary words that help students based on their language proficiency levels. It includes audio so language learners can hear words and phrases and see them visually.

9. Star fall: <http://www.starfall.com/>

This website provides many instructional games and activities for different content areas. It is colorful and provides tons of visual aids for young beginners.

10. ESL Games Plus: <http://www.eslgamesplus.com/SPELLING-GAMES/>

This website provides interactive ESL educational games and activities for teachers and learners. It includes most of the language skills games and activities.

11. ESL-galaxy: <http://www.esl-galaxy.com/>

This website has interactive educational games, exercises, and activities for ESL students and teachers.

12. ESL tower: <http://www.esltower.com/>

13. This website include good resources for ESL students and teachers, such as quizzes on grammar and vocabulary words, crosswords, word search, and other features.

14. ESL games world: <http://www.eslgamesworld.com/>

This website includes a variety of interactive games and exercises for young and adult ESL classrooms, which include memory, matching, and sequencing games and exercises.

15. ESL kids' lab: <http://www.eslkidslab.com/>

This website provides materials for ESL learners and teachers. It includes activities, exercises, videos, printable worksheets, and vocabulary flashcards.

16. Kiz Phonics: <http://www.kizphonics.com/>

This website divided materials based on learners' age from preschool to eighth grade. It provides systematic phonics that teaches learners how to read correctly.

17. Kiz School: <http://www.kizschool.com/>

This website provides ESL learners with video tutorials, interactive games, quizzes, activities, and exercises, printable worksheets, and vocabulary flashcards.

18. English media lab: <http://www.englishmedialab.com/>

This website provides a variety of English exercises in an interactive way. It also includes interactive quizzes for all language proficiency and age levels.

19. A 4 ESL: <http://a4esl.org/>

This website provides ESL Students with a variety of quizzes, exercises and puzzles

20. Esl-lab.com

This website includes a variety of topics through reading passages, discussion boards, and a wide range of activities. It contains study guides and quizzes based on proficiency level.

21. <http://edhelper.com/>

This website is organized by grade level and monthly themes. It includes problem-based activities such as critical thinking puzzles and worksheets. Students can design their own worksheets based on their interest. It includes free printable materials for all subject areas.

22. Dave's ESL Café: <http://www.eslcafe.com/ideas/>

The website is free and has useful resources for ESL teacher. There are numerous articles, links, and information about language learning. Also, there is information for ESL students to locate relevant lessons for better understanding of class content.

23. BusyTeacher.org: <http://busyteacher.org/>

This website is well-organized and includes materials on any subject matter that teachers might need. Also, it provides worksheets most of which are free and easy to download. There are articles for and other resources for language teachers to improve their lessons plan. Content is divided based on the needed language skills such as Listening, Speaking, Writing, and Reading.

24. Fluentu.com: <http://www.fluentu.com/english/>

This website includes videos for ESL teacher to use in class. Teachers can set up accounts for students to use for independent study. Also, it includes teachers and learners' blogs to help teachers better designing their lessons based on learners' interests.

25. Martha: <http://pbskids.org/martha/mobile/about.html>

This is an educational website to teach English learners new vocabulary words to increase academic and oral skills. It is designed to teach ESL students up to 20 words in each session. It is mostly used for learners between 4-7 years old.

26. English Club: <https://www.englishclub.com>

This is a free online resources including teachers' lesson plans, printable ESL worksheets, grammar and vocabulary classroom handouts, lessons, quizzes, and games that foster language learning. Tests and tips on reading such as sports, movies, and music for building vocabulary are provided. ESL podcasts for listening, spelling, and pronunciation rules and games are included. Writing and speaking tips, idioms, and slang references are provided. Also, it includes teaching tips and resources for EFL learning.

27. Brain Pop: <http://esl.brainpop.com>

This website includes free detailed lessons plan. It includes highly engaging animated videos to model conversations in English while introducing grammar concepts and vocabulary words. It includes a wide range of simple to complex content-related videos to support students' learning. In addition, it includes free games, placement tests, and word lists to reinforce instruction. This website contains skill-appropriate activities. Resources are organized by language skill levels. It includes interactive, colorful, and engaging games and word lists for language learners

28. ITalki: <https://www.italki.com/>

This website can help learners find teachers or partners for language exchange. It costs some money to have a one-on-one tutor, but it would be less than hiring a private face-to-face teacher and it is more convenient to some students. All conversation partners and exchanges are free. This website provides one-on-one learning experience that ESL may not be able to receive in schools. Students can choose any teacher based on people's rating.

29. BBC Learning English: www.bbc.co.uk/learningenglish/

This is an online free website that includes videos and radio broadcasts. It provides learners with news, latest words and phrases, videos that focus on pronunciation issues. It helps learners to focus on meaning by participating in the after-listening activities.

30. Babbel:

https://lp.babbel.com/d/ENG\_index.html?bsc=aw6b\_engall&btp=default&gclid=COTa2bO3pNACFQ9EfgodGAoIgw&l2=ALL

This website consists of many different languages to learn. It helps students practice vocabulary words and grammar rules through interactive quizzes. It is flexible for users to choose their subjects of interest. It focuses on all language skills including listening, speaking, reading, writing, grammar, and pronunciation. It also offers travel dialogues which prepare users to have a list of the most essential vocabulary words for an upcoming trip.

31. Memrise: <https://www.memrise.com/>

This website is free, which includes more than 300,000 courses in 100 languages. It has been created to help learners to learn 44 words per hour. It includes educational games and drills. This website provides visual learning, review materials, and rapid recall. It helps learners to keep track of their learning and teachers can manage students' groups. It is fun for students because they can compete with one another.

32. Fluentu: www.fluentu.com

This website is an app store too and it provides learners with authentic videos, such as music videos, commercials, news, cartoons, and inspiring stories based on language skill levels. It helps learners to be introduced to English language and culture aspects over time. In addition, this app also includes subtitles that allow users to view word definition.

33. Super nature: <http://www.supernature1.com>

This website is friendly, colorful, interactive for ESL learners. It includes over 500 vocabulary words. Also it has interactive videos and a newsletter for extra interests that can be mailed.

34. Online Story Time: <http://www.first-school.ws/theme/onlinestory.htm>

This website provides teachers with access to libraries in Spanish. It includes books and printable activities.

35. ESL Lounge <http://www.esl-lounge.com>

This website has free worksheets and activities, online newsletter with teacher feedback, and ESL terminology dictionary.

36. Study zone: <http://web2.uvcs.uvic.ca/courses/elc/studyzone/>

This website provides language lessons and practice exercises for specific language skill level of learners. It is a good tool for adult ESL learners. It provides a range of topics based on learners' language level. There are modules on grammar, vocabulary, and reading puzzles.

37. Using English: <https://www.usingenglish.com>

This website is organized and easy to use. It has various resources for both teachers and students. It includes teacher handouts, quizzes, printable worksheets, lesson plans, and training handouts.

38. ESL gold: <http://www.eslgold.com>

This website is organized by language skill level and it provides podcasts for listening practices and has flashcards with various content. It provides sentence frames and suggested topics for interactive conversations in English. Also, it provides short reading exercises and writing suggested topics to improve reading and writing skills.

39. Learn English kids: <https://learnenglishkids.britishcouncil.org/en>

This website provides numerous games, songs, stories, and activities for English learners. Learners can practice spelling for tricky English words. ESL learners can make their own flashcards, crafts, and worksheets and then they can print them off and use them. It includes word games to practice English grammar.

40. Many things: www.manythings.org

This website provides countless language category and game options to practice words and concept that ESL learners need to improve their language skills. It includes quizzes, word games, proverbs, expressions, and sentence generator. It contains audio player to help ELL to read and listen to sentences that include a specific word.

41. Lantern Fish: www.bogglesworldesl.com

This website includes free printable fun and creative activity worksheets based on grade and language skill level. This website contains crosswords, rhyming riddles, flash cards, songs, creative writing, and phonics activities and games. It also contains board and word skills games.

42. Strategy Cards:

<https://drive.google.com/file/d/0BzhiHEyrPikwU1dWS3I0d0xIYWm/view>

This website has many different instructional strategies for ESL teachers. Each strategy contains a brief description and step-by-step instruction for implementing these strategies in planning lessons plan. Also, it provides differentiation for different language levels of ESL students.

43. ESL-Kids: <http://esl-kids.com>

This website is free and easy to use. It includes worksheets, flashcards, songs, games, and other instructional activities. It provides problem-based activities. Teachers can design their own worksheets based on students' needs.

44. English 4 Kids: <http://www.english-4kids.com/index.html>

This website provides lessons, free printable worksheets, games, tutorials, PowerPoint presentations, and flashcards.

45. Reading, Writing, and Learning in ESL: <http://anyflip.com/ttcw/achs>

This is a resource book for teaching k-12 ESL students.